Food Cannot Upset Your Stomach

If you take two or three little tablets of Bisurated Magnesia immediately after eating. When you have pain in your stomach the trouble is due to excessive acid or food fermentation. Bisurated Magnesia Tablets neutralise the acid, stop the fermentation, and in five minutes your stomach is doing its work in a painless, normal manner. If you have dyspepsia, gastritis, indigestion, or just a plain every-day pain after eating, go to the nearest chemist and get some Bisurated Magnesia Tablets. A large flask costs very little and if you will take as directed you will find you can eat what you like without fear of any following discomfort. Further, it is usually found that the simple taking of Bisurated Magnesia adds strength and power to the vital organs: It is urged, however, that the "BISMAG" oval trade-mark sign be seen when purchasing

FORANEURISM, CANCER ETC.

A new medicine for the cure of Aneurism, Cancer and Carbuncle by Injection and Internal use.

Most physicians and surgeons have expressed the opinion that Aneurism, Cancer and Carbuncle are incurable and many deaths have been caused by these dread diseases. Dr. T.
Matsushita, M. B., Professor of the Japanese Imperial University has made a careful study of these diseases for several years and has at last discovered the use of "CARCINOLYSIN" for injection and internal use. A large number of Japanese patients have been cured by the use of this medicine and it is now becoming well known for its curative properties.

Foreigners have always died of these diseases owing to failure to find a remedy.

Of late Dr. Han Yui Shen is suffering from cancer of the liver which is a phase of one of the above-mentioned diseases. These suffering from this disease will gradually develop fever, nervous pain, urinary troubles, bad appetite, dysentery and vomiting.

Victims of this disease are advised to immediately procure "CARCINOLYSIN" from our agents and by taking this internally, or by injection, the progress of the disease will be stopped and results quickly obtained.

Cancer glands will disappear and swollen spleen be reduced to a minimum quickly and easily by the use of "CARCINOLYSIN".

Those having hereditary disease are advised to take "CARCINOLYSIN" in order to check its activities.

"This medicine is the result of long experiment and has no injurious effect on those taking it."

QUEEN'S COLLEGE.

ANNUAL GATHERING OF OLD BOYS.

HEADS IMPENDING
DEPARTURE.

Old Boys and others interested in Queen's College to the number of 300 sat down to dinner at Queen's College Hall on Saturday evening, the gathering being presided over by Mr. George Grimble, President of the Old Boys' Association.
Among those present were: Mr. E. Tanner, the College Headmaster, Sir Robert Ho Tung, Mr. Lee Hy-san, Vice-President of the Association, Mr.
C. G. Anderson, the Secretary, Mr.
E. A. Ralphs, Mr. R. E. O. Bird,
Mr. H. J. Breem, Mr. E. Wylie,
Mr. E. J. Edwards, Mr. Ho Leung,
Mr. Ho Wing, Mr. Li Yim-to, Mr.
J. F. Grosse, Mr. U. Rumbach, Mr.
Ho Fook and Mr. M. K. L.

The usual formal toasts having been honoured the Chairman addressed the gathering and said:—

Mr. Tanner and Gentlemen.—
The next toast has fallen to my lot, and without being guilty of hypocrisy I wish it had been placed in able hands. The toast which I have to propose and which I am sure will meet with your hearty approval is one in which we are all interested—"Queen's College." It is one which, in an assembly like the present, calls but for few remarks from me.
Brevity in after dinner speeches is not only the soul of wit, but is the soul, in my mind, of all other social virtues. As good wine needs no bush, a good cause needs little talking, and I feel therefore, gentlemen, that Queen's College can stand its ground without being bespattered by after-dinner praise. I am quite sure there is not a member of the Q.C.O.B.
Association who would not feel proud of any language I could use on this occasion when cracking up our old College.

For the information of our guests—whom we most cordially welcome here to-night—I would tell them that the Association is a body which musters now about 700 members, and it is not resting satisfied with this figure. "We love our old School and the fact of our assembling to-night in such numbers is a proof of this. We may appear to be moving a bit slowly but I can assure you, all that we,
as an Association, are doing all we possibly can, with our funds, to benefit the present scholars in the College."

Since our last reunion in this Hall I am glad to state that the Association has allotted sufficient funds for the permanent employment of two annual scholarships of $50 each to perpetuate the memory of the late Mr. Tsang Chung, and the late Mr. Ng In.
And I think I can promise that,
as time goes on, and our funds increase, this Association will earnestly endeavour to continue to discharge its duties in this manner, a manner that should result in gaining the good opinion of everybody connected with the College. (Applause.)

When I rose, gentlemen, I promised to be brief, so you can take it from me that I am not going to emulate our respected Vice-President, Mr. Tanner, who, though he prefaced his report at the last prize-giving day with the remark that he would like to create a good impression by being brief, nevertheless inflicted his hearers with 80 closely typewritten sheets of paper. As the "Yellow Dragon" very aptly puts it this was probably a terminological inexactitude.
(Laughter.)

But before sitting down I feel I must mention how pleased we are to see our late President here to-night. In a review of the year's doings of Old Queen's Colleagues I feel that I should dwell upon an outstanding personality among the Old Boys. The presence here to-night of the first President of our Association, Sir Robert Ho Tung, is a gratifying evidence of his unwavering interest in Queen's College. We are proud to think that one of our own schoolmates represented Hongkong as the Honorary Associate Commissioner at Wembley. Sir Robert's doings in England last year received world-wide publicity. He will be long remembered too by all well-wishers of China for his efforts in connection with the peace movement. His services to the neighbouring Colony of Macao led to recognition by the Portuguese Government in his being decorated with the knighthood of the Most Ancient Order of Christ. In a week from now our first President will again be on the high seas on his way to England, and we cannot but congratulate ourselves that he again has been appointed as the Honorary Chinese Commissioner for Hongkong at Wembley. On this occasion he will be accompanied by Lady Ho Tung and young Robbie Ho Tung, who is himself a student of Queen's College. Good luck and our best wishes to them!
(Applause.)

Then, too, I must not forget to mention my old class mate Mr. Ho Kong-tong, who also did a lot of useful work last year in England for which he received the order of St. John of Jerusalem.
(Applause.)

In conclusion, gentlemen, it is with very great regret that I have to inform you that this is the last occasion on which we shall have our much respected Vice-President, Mr. Tanner, with us at our annual reunions. I have known Mr. Tanner for a long series of years, and having for all those years enjoyed his friendship, I feel that I am entitled to say that if he enjoys the onerous years of his retirement as well as he has discharged the onerous duties that have devolved upon him as Head Master of Queen's College, then no eulogium is necessary from me.
The zeal and ability he has brought to bear in his capacity has been such as to commend him not only to the College but to the whole body of his fellow-citizens.
He has exercised the powers with which he has been invested with firmness and moderation and I am positive that when the time comes for him to render up the trust it will be found that the dignity and prestige of his honourable office has suffered nothing but good at his hands. We all know that Mr.
Tanner faithfully and honestly discharges his duties with a perfect abnegation of self. Such a man deserves our highest admiration and praise. Such a man it is who reflects credit, and adds tone and greatness to a College. Let me quote the words of H.E. the Governor, who said, at the last prize distribution:—

"What was more important than examinations was that the tone of Queen's College—a great asset in itself—should be maintained. He congratulated Mr. Tanner on the manner in which he had maintained the old standards and traditions of Queen's College."

I am sure you will agree with me, gentlemen, that such praise was well deserved. We hope, Sir, that you will have an enjoyable holiday, and live long to enjoy your well-deserved pension.
(Applause.)

In conclusion, I may say I am speaking against my doctor's orders. There is a lot more to be said in favour of our old school, but any and all deficiencies of mine will be made up by our hard-working and energetic Hon.
Secretary, when he is called on to make a speech.

In a brief response Mr. Tanner referred to the aim of the College as the provision of a sound and wholesome diet of education just as parents provided wholesome food for growing children. He would feel the wrench tremendously when he had to tear himself from the work and his associations in the Colony but he felt that when October came round he would be pretty well exhausted.
He had been at that sort of work for about 40 years and he had started in the strenuous days of pupil teachers, just before he was 15 years of age.

Sir Robert Ho Tung, speaking on behalf of the guests in regard to Mr. Tanner's approaching re-irement, said that in spite of his 27 years at the College he appeared to have kept his youth. They would all be sorry to lose him in October and they wished him many happy years of well deserved holiday.

Mr. Anderson and Mr. R. E. O.
Bird also spoke briefly, the latter recalling that he had spent much of the time between 1902 and 1915 acting in the place of Mr. Tanner and mentioning that five years ago the Old Boys had held their first reunion dinner.

The concert items which concluded the evening's entertainment consisted of the School Song sung by Mr. E. J. Edwards, a violin solo by Mr. H. S. Yuag, two Chinese musical items and an assault at arms by Mr. "Kild" Marriot and Mr. Lai Sze-chiu.

Then, too, I must not forget to mention my old class mate Mr. Ho Kong-tong, who also did a lot of
useful work last year in England
for which he received the order
of St. John of Jerusalem.

PIRATES AND TALK.

Official statements are not as a rule noted for their clarity. The memorandum by the First Lord of the Admiralty on the piracy menace is typically point-less. Mr. Bridgeman states that along with the disturbances in China piracy has been a strain on the resources of the Navy. The public scarcely needed to be told that. Obviously piracy must be a strain on the Navy when outrages are still being committed as evidence that for all its present efforts the Navy has still to get complete mastery of the problem.
Mr. Bridgeman's next remark is a little more helpful. The gun-boats on the Yangtze are rapidly nearing the end of their effective life and they will be gradually replaced. Here at least is the promise of greater efficiency—new craft for old. Likewise there is hope for more effective measures in Mr. Bridgeman's further statement that four motor-launches are being sent out to the Yangtze.
But here our mild jubilation comes to an end. The rest of Mr.
Bridgeman's memorandum as cabled is barren of promise."Useful service is being performed by river launches provided by the Hongkong Government and manned by the Navy." We know that. What we want to hear is that more of these launches are being provided by the Admiralty.
Mr. Bridgeman admits that they are performing "useful service."
Would not a few more such boats extend that "useful service," and besides easing the strain on the resources of the Navy, greatly increase the efficiency of our measures to deal with piracy?
Everyone, except possibly certain Admiralty officials, agrees that it is the bounden duty of the British Navy to protect British ships. Mr. Bridgeman's statement does not promise any further help from the Navy, anyway in the South China danger zone, but it does at least centre attention upon the piracy evil. Perhaps public opinion will now compel the Admiralty to accept its full responsibility. For the Admiralty, that would be a slightly ironical outcome of Mr. Bridgeman's memorandum, but for Hongkong a very welcome one indeed, which is all the Colony cares about!

Shareholdings.

The issue of new share capital for the Hongkong Electric Co., Ltd., is being deferred. When it is made, it is probable the present shareholders will be allowed to come in "on the ground floor"— which is the usual practice. We wonder, if, in connection with the Colony's public utility companies, some provision could be made to have a larger shareholding clientelle, by reducing the number of shares which may be held by one person. In this way encouragement would be given to the "small man" to have an interest in a company which he helps to prosper. An experiment might be made with setting aside a certain portion of the capital of any public utility company for this express purpose. Such shares would not be affected by the rise and fall of the market; they would always be at par. In such way they would be regarded strictly as investment securities and would, we feel, be an inducement to greater thrift.

Electricity.

The Colony should be proud of some of its Public Utility Companies—certainly the Hongkong Electric Co., Ltd., which held another annual meeting on Saturday. Visualise the Colony in its early days—first with oil lamps; next with dim and later on the more steady gas flames; until to-day the Colony is ablaze with the gleaming electric, helping to make the sight from the harbour in the evening one of the most picturesque in the world, and forming an aid to contentment which is not to be despised.
Figures can be made to show anything; those in connection with the Hongkong Electric Co., show clearly, expansion, development, and an enterprise worthy of all praise. Consumers are treated generously and the shareholders do not suffer thereby. A contented staff is to have premises built for their occupation. Such things as these only come out at an annual meeting. They increase our respect for a company which has so worthily maintained its position and reputation, and which has kept abreast of the Colony's expansion to such a remarkable degree.

CORRESPONDENCE.

RED NOSES OR WHITE?

(To the Editor of the China Mail).

Sir—As I have come across something which I cannot refrain from bringing to your notice I make no apology for encroaching on your valuable space.Quite recently an estimable Dean at Home saw a girl powdering her nose in a railway carriage.
To the girls of Manchester High School he said: "There may be two points of view whether it is a charming thing to put powder on your nose when it is red but there is only one point of view as to where a good-mannered girl would do it."To British womanhood out in Hongkong and the Far East generally I would commend the Dean's words. We have our sense of modesty to maintain before millions of Asiatics.If only for the sake of the so-called inferior races, I would like to see all European ladies forego the putting on of powder in public.Yours, etc., ANFIELD.

WEMBLEY AGAIN.

THIS YEAR'S CHIEF
ATTRACTIONS.What will be the chief attractions of the British Empire Exhibition of 1925? Into the details of the contents of the various overseas pavilions it is unnecessary at the moment to go. Suffice it to say that the Dominions and Colonies are all entering into the spirit of the Exhibition in the same enthusiastic way as they did last year. All are preparing fresh displays and a healthy spirit of rivalry prevails among their organisers. They mean to go one better than last year, and each, if possible, intends to outdo his colleagues.The British Government Pavilion will be better than it was last year.
The Admiralty Theatre, which last year housed "The Storming of Zeebrugge" will again be one of the attractions of the Pavilion. The Ministry of Health will have a display there.The Services will play a big part in the Exhibition.
In the Palace of Engineering pride of place will be given to a great display of housing.The Palace of Industry will be carried a stage further. There will be a number of working exhibits.The Palace of Arts will again contain representative examples of the art of the Dominions.The 1924 scheme of Civic periods is to be repeated on a more extensive scale.There will be numerous attractions and additions all arranged to emphasise the objects of the British Empire Exhibition, which are:

1. To continue the work of Empire education begun in 1924.
2. To show to the people of the home country the almost illimitable possibilities of the Empire Overseas.
3. To seek in the development of the raw materials of the Empire new sources of imperial wealth.
4. To foster inter-Empire trade and to open up fresh markets both for Dominion and home products.
5. To make the various races of the British Empire better known to each other.
6. To serve for six months as the social centre of the Empire.

WELSH NOTES.

APPEAL TO HONGKONG'S
WELSH.

[BY AP RHYS.]

The Cymdeithas Dewi Sant of Hongkong is associating itself with the movement set afoot to erect a memorial to one who has with reason been described as the greatest Welshman who ever lived—Owen Glyndwr (or Glendower)—the first man to unite Wales into one country.In the course of a few days time members will be circulated and an opportunity given them to contribute to the fund which has as its object the erecting of a village institute in Glyndwr, the close historical associations of which with the national hero are detailed in an interesting pamphlet accompanying the donation cards.
We are given to understand that the movement is being greeted with much enthusiasm and it is confidently anticipated that the lead given by the President of the St. David's Society here will result in a generous response from Hongkong Welshmen to this appeal to their national inspiration and patriotic ideals.The movement has been set afoot with the approval of eminent Welsh educationists and leaders, many of whom were directly responsible for its inception and those who have made its progress their particular care are looking to Societies such as ours all over the world to give them a helping hand. The monument has been well described as a national monument for a national hero.
"Glyndwr is not merely a hero among Welshmen but a hero among heroes; to me he is the greatest man Wales can claim wholly as her own" is how His Grace the Archbishop of Wales has put it.Owen Glendower's star rose on stormy days. From the day in 1400 on which the Welsh saw that he was their leader, to the day of his disappearance in 1415 or 1416, he was in continuous war with the strangers, called lords, of the marches, who were continually threatening the descendants of the old Welsh princes at this time and stealing their land by many wiles.
The poets have described him as a tall, sinewy, majestic man with long beard and hair; this much, at any rate, is certain, that he was a brave soldier, a skillful general and an able statesman. In addition to many other commendable ideals he set before himself was that of making the Church of Wales better and purer than it had ever been before and he was largely instrumental in bringing it to pass.

"TRICK CYCLISTS"

SMALL BOY SMALL FINE.

Between six and nine o'clock on Saturday evening a large number of cyclists were giving exhibitions of trick cycling in Statue Square.
Their performances were interrupted by a traffic officer, who pounced on them and secured eight of their number.The offenders were brought before Mr. S.B.B. McBride at the Central Magistracy this morning and charged with obstruction.
Seven of them were fined $5 each.
The eighth, who happened to be a small boy, was fined $2.

FOUND AT SEA.

Picked up in the open sea after a collision with a mail steamer, three distressed Chinese junkmen have been taken to the Government Civil Hospital for attention.
The French Mail steamer Angkor has arrived from Shanghai. When near Amoy, on her way down, a junk was run down and the crew of 23 subsequently picked up and brought to Hongkong.Twenty-five of the crew were sent to the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs and then referred to the Harbour Office.

reports having sighted a capsized junk in Lat. 22.21 N., Long. 114.53

ARMED ROBBERS.

An armed robbery took place at Maraukoo last night. Four men knocked at the door of a tea-house saying they had come to purchase peanuts. On the door being opened, they intimidated a woman and her young brother by the aid of daggers and stole money and property amounting to $14.30.

IRELAND'S WIN.

WALES LOSE AT RUGBY.

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, March 14.
Ireland beat Wales by 19 points to 3 at Belfast to-day in the international rugby match.At the start it was dull and following rain in the morning, the turf was soft on top. There were 18,000 spectators.Wales kicked off against a slight breeze, and after three minutes, Suggden secured from the scrum and gave to Millen, who scored for Ireland. Crawford kicked, but sent the ball against the bar.The Irishmen were continually attacking, Crawford once being only inches wide with a penalty kick.After 32 minutes, an Irish passing movement ended in George Stephenson scoring a try which he himself converted.Herrara, a Welsh forward, retired lame.The Irishmen were pressing heavily towards halftime when the score was Ireland 8, Wales 0.On the resumption Ireland began briskly, and Harry Stephenson nearly got over. A little later Wales made their first dangerous attack, but the movement was brought to an end by some fine tackling.George Stephenson kicked a fine penalty goal for Ireland after twelve minutes play.Soon after, the Irish tackling was at fault and some handling by the Welsh forwards resulted in Turnbull scoring an uncon-verted try.Shortly before the end, Browne scored an unconverted try for Ireland after a typical forward dribble. The Irishmen continued to have the upper hand and Harry Stephenson scored another try.

RED IDEAS FOR JAVA!

HOLLAND UNIVERSITY SENSATION.
PROFESSORS DENY ALLEGATIONS.

The Training of Colonial Civil Servants.

Leyden University professors deny startling charges that they have been encouraging revolutionary ideas in the Dutch East Indies.

HARMFUL TEACHING?
(Reuter's Service.)

The Hague, March 15.—Certain important concerns connected with the Dutch Indies have offered to endow the Utrecht State University with as many chairs as would be required for the complete training of future colonial civil servants. It is alleged on the ground that Leyden University professors have encouraged a revolutionary atmosphere against Dutch rule among the natives.

The Leyden professors have written to the Press refuting the allegations and declaring that their teaching is based on co-operation with the natives and the continuous furtherance of Dutch Indian social interests.

The juridical faculty of Amsterdam University, also the professors of other faculties at the Groningen and Utrecht universities, have asked the Minister of Education not to sanction the new faculty.

The names of M. Nederburgh, former President of the Dutch Indian High Court, and Dr. Gerretson, Director of the Royal Dutch Co., are mentioned among the possible new professors at Utrecht.

LOSSES TO THE STATE.
MANAGING DIRECTOR JAILED.
(Reuter's Service.)

MOSCOW, March 15.—After a month's hearing, the case in which the Gosselko Leather Trust Administration, which is accused of bribery and uncommercial management, involving losses to the State of over half a million roubles, has resulted in the managing director being sentenced to five years' imprisonment and six others to shorter terms.

FATAL CLASH.

ANOTHER COMMUNIST DISTURBANCE.
(Reuter's Service.)

Berlin, March 15.—In the course of a Communist demonstration against the Halle affair, a policeman shot a man dead. Three others were wounded.

HALLE AFFAIR.—An earlier cable stated that six people were killed, 23 seriously injured and thirteen injured in a collision between the police and Communists at Halle. The firing occurred immediately after speeches by the English and French Communists.

The police had previously informed the Communist party that foreign Communists would not be allowed to speak. When a German Communist started to translate the speeches, a police officer protested, and when the audience showed hostility summoned reinforcements and ordered the people to leave the hall. The crowd attacked the police with empty beer glasses and chairs. Suddenly a shot was fired from the gallery at the police. The police replied inflicting casualties aforementioned.]

JAPANESE STEAMER DISASTER.
(Reuter's Service.)

Nagasaki, March 14.—The 433-ton steamer Uwajima Maru No. 6 encountered a storm on Wednesday morning off Kabushima Islands.

Five destroyers have been searching for her in vain. The purser together with fifteen passengers have been saved; a hundred other persons are missing.

FRANCE'S REVENUE.

(Havas Agency.)

Paris, March 15.—The normal permanent revenue returns for February yielded approximately 1,869,000,000 francs, showing an increase of 49,000,000 compared with February of last year and 58,000,000 compared with the estimates.

Imports for January and February totalled 6,519,000,000 francs (7,000,000 tons) showing a decrease of 74,000,000 francs (750,000 tons) compared with the same period of 1924.

Exports totalled 7,157,000,000 francs (5,000,000 tons) showing an increase of 571,000,000 francs (1,000,000 tons).

Washington, March 14.—The Senate has ratified the Anglo-American Treaty, defining the Canada-American boundary. It has also ratified the Treaty, recognising Cuban sovereignty over Pine Islands. Senator Reed urged the United States to retain the Islands in the interests of national defence. He declared the Panama Canal was defenceless, because Britain commanded every channel thereof. The Lausanne Treaty re-establishing Turco-American relations was sent back to the foreign relations committee, by the Senate. Senator Borah explained that this action was taken, because "we haven't the votes to ratify."—(Reuter's American Service.)

Labour Leader's Bet.
GENEVA "MYSTERY."

THE PROTOCOL IS DEAD LONG LIVE THE PROTOCOL.

(Reuter's Service.)

LONDON, March 15.—Speaking at Fulham, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald condemned the Government's rejection of the Geneva Protocol. He declared the Protocol had assumed in its big proposal that nations were honourable and just, and that arbitration would be accepted. Mr. Chamberlain's proposal contained more risks and objections than the Protocol.

Mr. MacDonald pointed out that the Dominions did not reject the Protocol at Geneva. He did not know what had happened since, but the Labour party would make it their business to know.

Mr. MacDonald said he was prepared to bet that when the obligations Mr. Chamberlain would have to undertake were produced there was not a single self-governing dominion that would sign the pact. Mr. MacDonald concluded by saying: "The Protocol is dead, long live the Protocol."

DR. SUN YAT-SEN.

PRESIDENT'S PANEGYRIC.

Peking, March 13.—A mandate issued last night states:—

"Sun Wen, a former President of the Provisional Government, introduced reforms into the country by promoting the cause of republicanism. He brought the revolution of 1911 to a successful end, and yet he disclaimed power and position. Notwithstanding this he continued to work for the welfare of the people and the country with an energy and wisdom that won for him the admiration of the whole nation. The Provisional Chief Executive has always held this veteran in high esteem, and has always been badly in need of his help. When I assumed my present post I invited him to come to Peking. My wish was that he would live a long life and work with me for the country, but heaven is so unmerciful as to deprive the country of the services of such a man. When I think of the difficulties and troubles with which the country is beset, I am overcome with sorrow and grief."

"The Ministry of Interior is hereby ordered to suggest on the most liberal scale that posthumous honours be conferred upon him, so as to show the Government's appreciation of his meritorious services."

The remains will be removed to the Central Park on March 19. Memorial services are to be held on the 24th and 25th inst.

PEKING, March 15.—It is reported that Chang Tso-lin will shortly arrive at Tientsin. The visit, which is the subject of much speculation, is considered in some circles to be closely connected with the military situation in Houan.

OPIUM POPPY LANDS.

SUGGESTED SPECIAL COMMISSION.
LEAGUE'S CAUTIOUS ATTITUDE.

Questions of Greatest Importance Involved.

Feeling that questions of the greatest importance are involved, the League is deferring its decision upon a suggestion submitted by Persia.

DELICATE PROBLEM.

(Reuter's Service.)

Geneva, March 15.—As regards the resolution to embody the final act of the Opium Conference containing the suggestion of the Persian delegation that a commission should be appointed to visit certain opium-producing countries for the purpose of carefully studying the difficulties connected with the limitation of production and advising measures of rendering it possible to limit production to the quantities required for medical and scientific purposes, the report to the Council of the League of Nations states that the suggestion involves questions of great importance and recommends deferring full consideration until a later meeting of the Council.

[Saturday's cables reported that Sir Basil Blackett in the Indian Assembly in the course of a speech on the opium question, said that the Government of India would be only too pleased if the countries now taking Indian opium prohibited smoking, as the Government of India had largely done. India did not wish to profit by the degradation of other countries, but as long as the governments of other producing countries would not restrict smoking, there was no reason why India should forgo the revenue which would be simply transferred to Turkey or to Persia.]

EQUAL RIGHTS.

GERMANY AND LEAGUE OF NATIONS.
(Reuter's Service.)

Geneva, March 14.—Replying to Germany's note, the League Council notes with satisfaction the decision to seek early admission and reassures Germany she will be on a footing of equality with other members. The Council points out that the essence of the League's constitution is equal rights and equal obligations, and this principle applies to Germany's reservation as regards non-participation in punitive undertakings. The reply explains that the character and extent of any member's active co-operation in military measures in pursuance of the Covenant will vary with the military position of the member concerned, and recalls that the Council recommends the quota of effectiveness to be contributed by the respective powers. Germany will be able to say to what extent she will be able to comply with such recommendations. The Council explicitly declares that the reservation whereby one member shall retain neutrality in connection with collective operations undertaken by the League against Covenant breaking State will undermine the basis of the League and is incompatible to membership.

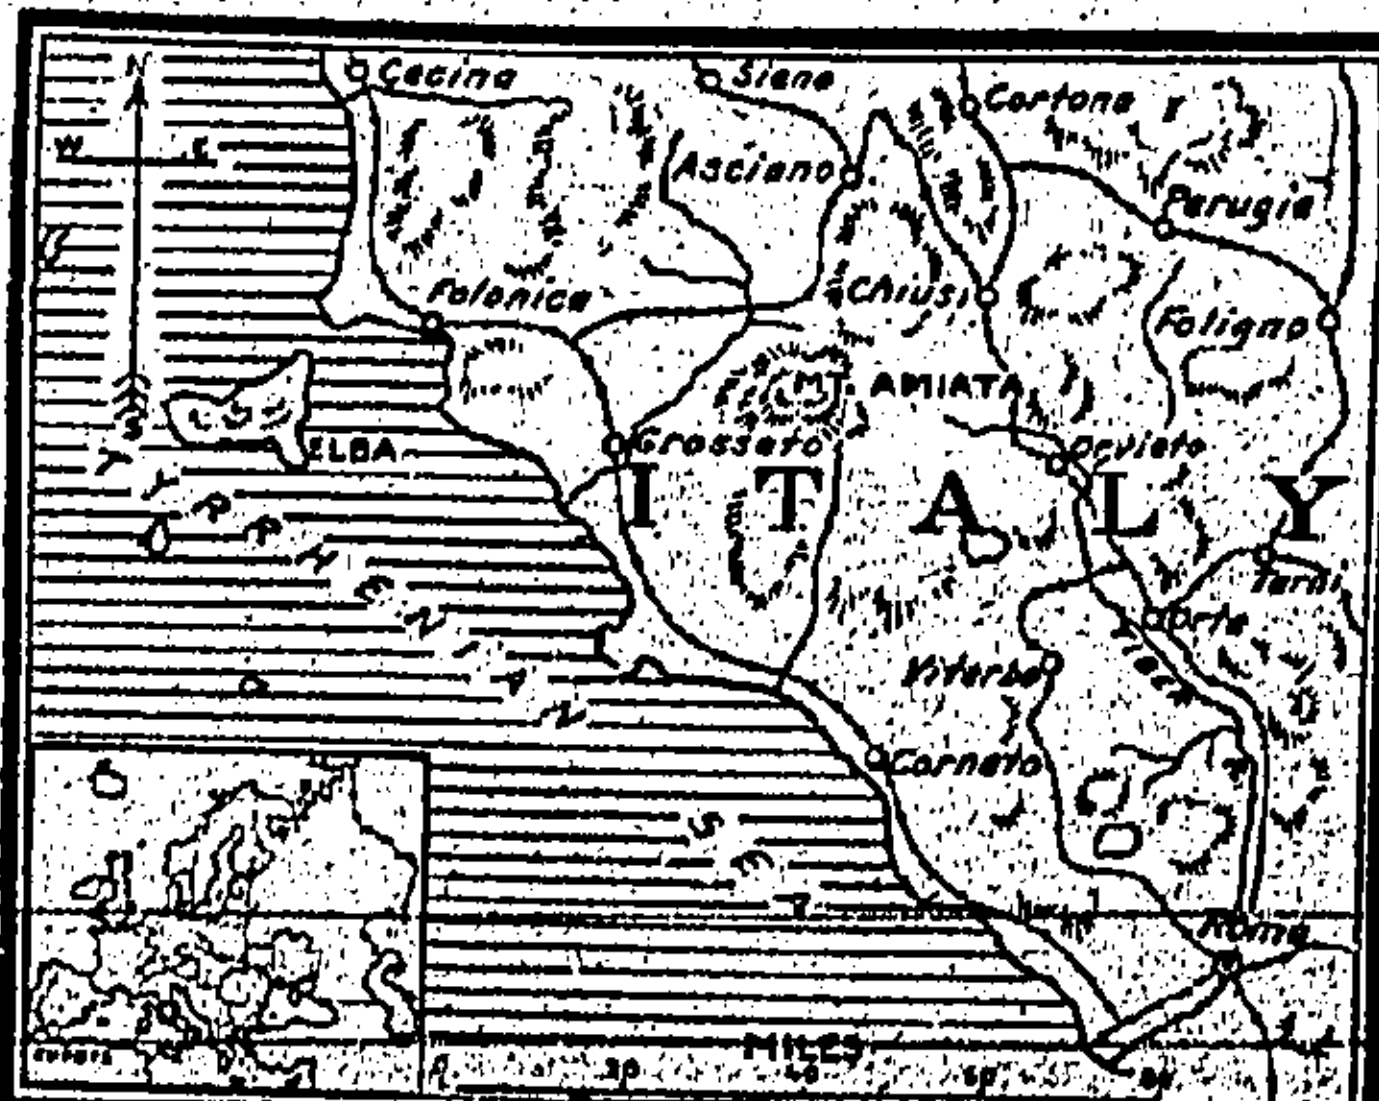

EXPULSION OF THE PATRIARCH. The reply was read and approved by the League Council, without discussion. After disposing of the remaining questions, the session terminated. It was decided to refer the question of the Council's competence to deal with the Greek appeal in connection with the expulsion of the Patriarch to a World Court for an opinion in view of Turkey's contention that the matter is one of domestic concern. The report regarding the results of the second Opium Conference was approved and the Secretary General authorised to take the necessary steps to secure adherence to the convention inter alia of Afghanistan, Soviet Russia, Hedjaz, Mexico and the Sudan. With reference of the League's right to investigate armaments of enemy countries the Council passed a resolution providing for the exercise of an investigation by the Council.

AWAITING BRITISH PROPOSALS.

(Havas Agency.)

Paris, March 15.—M. Briand, interviewed by Figaro, congratulated the meeting of the League of Nations Council on its achievements. He stated that despite the failure of the protocol the League became stronger thanks to the settlement of many difficult problems.

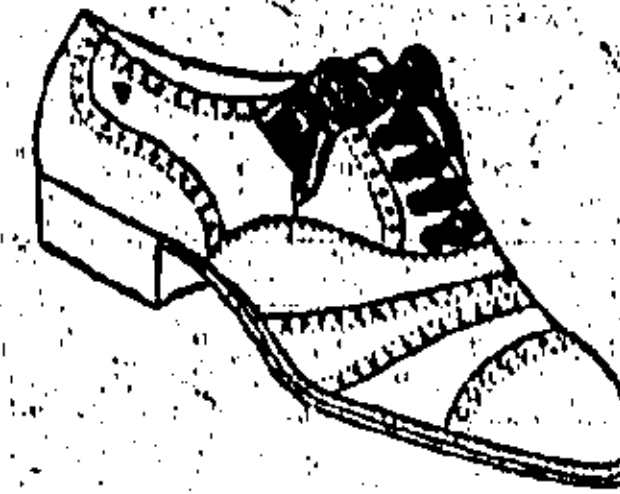

France was now awaiting the new British proposals concerning the protocol. France in proposing the obligatory arbitration of all conflicts became the champion for the essential idea of the League and the rallying point of all nations aspiring to peace.

DATES FIXED FOR SHIELD GAMES.

SCOTLAND v. CHINA.

Dates have been fixed by the Hongkong Football Association for the Shield senior and junior final ties and the deciding match for the "Sunday Herald" International Charity Cup.

As both Scotland and China have beaten England in the "Sunday Herald" Cup, they will play off for the championship. The game has been fixed for Saturday, March 21, kick-off at 4.30 p.m., Club ground.

South China Athletic Association will do duty for China. The following have been selected to represent Scotland:—Clarke (Police); Gerrard (Club); McKelvie (Kowloon); Mair, Stewart (Club); A. Duncan (Kowloon); G. Duncan (Kowloon); Forsyth (Club); McBride (Kowloon); Dr. Valentine (Police); and Keys (Club). Reserves: Johnston (Club) and Dewar (Police).

In the event of a draw, the match will be replayed. If not, the Cup will be presented to the winners when the match is over.

Shield Finals.
On Saturday, March 28, the Shield finals will be played off at the Club ground, as follows:—

Junior: Kowloon Reserves v. Surrey Reserves—kick-off at 2.45 p.m.

Senior: Kowloon v. Police—kick-off at 4.30 p.m.

Extra time will be played if necessary. Should this take place in the Junior tie, the Senior match will start later.

SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL.

SHIELD SEMI-FINALS AND LEAGUE GAMES.

PLAY NOT UP TO PAR.

On Saturday, the two remaining Shield semi-finals, one in each section, were played off.

Cup-tie excitement probably accounted for the poor standard of play in both matches.

In the senior competition, the Police eliminated the Royal Artillery and qualify to meet Kowloon. Club de Recreo "A" went down to the Surrey Regt. reserves and the latter pass into the final round to play Kowloon Reserves for the trophy.

The China "B" team in the junior league failed to take the field against the Recreo "B" and one of the China "A" players was ordered off the field by the referee in a match with St. Joseph's "A."

SENIOR SHIELD.

Police v. R.A.

For this game the teams turned out as follows:—

Police:—Clarke; Wynne, McWalters; Oram, Dewar, Fenn; Britton, Pearson, Johnson, Dr. Valentine, and Simpson.

R.A.:—Moore; Doody, Hardy; Rachell, Reade, Viccars; Harris, Pulford, Castledene, Bradley, and Smith.

The game opened with the Police attacking, and Simpson was conspicuous for a couple of nice runs down the left wing, but his finishing was weak. Valentine sent behind, and at the other end Smith ballooned the ball over the bar. Both Johnson and Valentine missed an open goal from a nice dropping centre by Oram, Doody clearing at the second attempt. Clarke saved a certain goal from Bradley, who was through and looked all the way a scorer. Pearson was responsible for the only goal that was scored, heading the ball past Moore from a nice centre from the right.

The Gunners' defence was very shaky and corners too numerous to mention fell to the lot of the Police, but they were unable to improve on them, although at one time a goal seemed certain, Moore unhooking the ball out from under the bar after a well-placed corner by Britton.

Half-time: Police 1, R.A. 0. Resuming, the Gunners went all out to equalise, and it was bad marksmanship only that proved their undoing. Castledene was the worst offender in this respect, and even when a good chance presented itself, he would spoil it by getting offside. Fenn was injured and had to leave the field for a time. Simpson was seen to advantage in one or two attempts, but nothing came of them. The R.A., although trying hard, could not find the net, and they had to admit defeat by the only goal scored.

Result:—Police, 1; R.A., nil.

From a spectators' point of view it was a very poor game to watch. The Police, as in their game against the Surreys, went all out in the first half and after scoring relied on their defence to keep their opponents out. There was no player of outstanding merit, although the whole defence, with the exception of McWalters, played a hard game. Harris was the outstanding player for the Gunners. His tussles with Fenn were good to watch and until the latter was injured honours were about equal. Castledene has lost some of his old form, whilst Smith was a passenger.

The Police were rewarded with success for adopting purely cup-tie tactics which proved the undoing of the Surreys.

Simpson, the Police winger, should realise that an outside forward's main duty is not to score goals off his own boot at the sacrifice of combination.

Surreys Res. v. Recreo "A."

For the Junior Shield game the teams lined up as follows:—

Surreys:—Hills; Harris, Williams; Dumbrell, McGraevy, Lemar; Merry, Robinson, Stairs, Cheesman, and Peskitt.

Recreo "A":—Silva; Ogley, Xavier; Assimpcao, A. A. Remedios, H. C. Remedios; Xavier, Feurtes, Gosano, Rocha, and Brown.

The first half was very tame, each side having their share of attacking. The Recreo were the first to score, Brown sending over a nice centre for their centre forward to head past Hills, although Feurtes would have scored had Gosano missed.

Soon after this Peskitt, with a very lucky shot from the left wing, beat Silva, the ball entering the far side of the net, the goalkeeper evidently thinking that it was going behind.

There was no further scoring up to half-time, the teams crossing over with a goal each to their credit.

In the second half the game was nearly all in favour of the soldiers, although it must be said that the few flying visits paid to the Surreys' half by the Recreos were of more danger than all the soldiers' attacking. Stairs scored the second goal for the Surreys.

Result:—Surreys, 2; Recreo "A", 1.

LEAGUE—Division II.

Kowloon Res. v. Drums.

Kowloon had a rather easier win over the Drums than was expected, after the close game two weeks ago.

Kowloon started off and, within two minutes from the start, opened the scoring by a nice shot from Mason that quite beat Bayard. The Drums, however, were not to be disheartened and, going straight down from the centre kick, Parker netted, making the score level.

Drums continued to press and, Huldins had had luck in not scoring. Kowloon then attacked, Muir putting in a lovely shot, but Bayard saved at the expense of a corner. Muir put in a fine centre, and after considerable play around the goal, the Drums cleared. Kowloon then forced another corner. Morris put in a well-judged shot right in the goal mouth, but Freestons, with a fine piece of individual play, cleared.

Kowloon, however, were not to be denied and, as the result of continual pressure, Mason at last broke through and scored. Shortly after Muir made a fine rush, Cooper fouling him just outside the goal area. Muir took the kick and scored just before the whistle blowing for half-time, with Kowloon leading by 3 goals to 1.

In the second half neither side succeeded in scoring, although they both tried hard. Kowloon started by pressing. Mason put in a fine shot, but Bayard saved at the expense of a corner. Fitzgerald put in a fine shot and Bayard again gave away a corner. Kowloon, however, were unable to obtain any advantage from it. Kowloon kept up the pressure, Morris putting in a nice shot, but Bayard cleared. The Drums then pressed, but Slipper was safe. Fitzgerald made a fine run, and finished up with a good shot, but Bayard again saved. Muir next had bad luck in not scoring. The Drums tried hard to score, Huldins going through on his own, but finished up weakly in front of goal. Rasmussen, giving away a corner, from which Crockett sent behind. With about five minutes to time Crockett had the mirror-time to be hurt, and had to be carried off the field. The Drums pressed hard and Brown fouled just outside the dreaded area. Hutchins took the shot but, from the melee in front of goal, Kowloon managed to clear.

There was no more scoring and Kowloon won by three goals to one.

Teams:—
Kowloon Reserves:—G. B. Slipper; A. Rasmussen, W. Parratt; Latham, A. W. Brown (Capt.), S. Randle; C. Morris, V. Hast, K. Mason, A. Fitzgerald, and J. Muir.

Drums:—Bayard; Cooper, Parker; Agnew, Freestone, Muklett; Crockett, Hutchins, Parker, Mumby, and Burridge.

St. Joseph's "B" v. University.

The College gained a creditable win against the University by defeating them by two goals to none.

Sacred Heart v. Club.

On the Club ground the home team had to admit defeat by three goals to one.

The following played for the Sacred Heart:—Ismail; Ramzan, A. G. Mahomed; Kitchell, Castilho, Hartman; Minu, D. Mahomed, A. Dallah (Capt.), Adall and N. B. Mahomed.

N. B. Mahomed, Adall and Minu scored for the school team.

China "A" v. St. Joseph's "A."

Playing with only nine men the College had to admit defeat by three clear goals. All three goals were scored in the first half. It is to be regretted that it was necessary for the referee to order off a player in this game.

FRIENDLY MATCH.

Kowloon v. California.

Kowloon had no difficulty in defeating a team from the U.S. California. The football was mediocre, neither side being at full strength. Kowloon had nearly all the play, and their goal was hardly ever in danger throughout.

In the first half Kowloon soon took the lead and when the whistle blew they had three goals to their credit through Muir, Hayes, and Duncan.

The second half was one bombardment of the California's goal with Kowloon shooting weakly. Thanks to the good play of the California's goalkeeper, the score was kept down to only one more against them, this coming from Duncan.

Kowloon thus gained an easy victory by four goals to nil.

The Kowloon team comprised:—Hast; Wheeler, Reed; Prowse, McKelvie, Duncan; A. White, Duncan, H. Hayes, Austen, and Muir.

The S.C.A.A. should easily beat the Moslem Club, and win the shield with maximum points. Ching Wah should defeat their opponents, and come a good second with 10 points. It may be mentioned that Ching Wah only lost to the League favourites.

The presentation of the trophy to the winners will be made on March 31.

GUARD THE CATHEDRAL!

ST. PAUL'S DAY, 1925.

Londoners all and citizens of Empire,
Who beneath Paul's high benison protected
Ply the day's labour, busy and rejoicing,
Guard the Cathedral!

Faithful hands reared it when along the Thames-side Nought remained standing—magazine or altar;
Faithful hearts pray'd then for a fair renewal.
And Wren achiev'd it.

Grandly: nor spared magnificence to aid him,
And the great dome rose as his art commanded.
Yearly, so fable telleth us, the master
Came in his old age.

Back to give thanks and meditate,
—benching
How the pile soared, orbicular, columnar!

Then returned homewards happy not to linger
Where men assembled.
"Seek ye" (he speaks) "my monument? around you Look." To-day that same epithet proclaims him—
The Times

Architrave, cornice, pediment, the circling Balcony's ambit.
What peril, but that pieties prevent it,
Now threatens? Erewhile on a time in earnest Danger encompassed this, as every minor Fane set about it.

Till the long years' imprisoning was over,
And the grateful bells rang again, triumphant,
—Sweet heralds post-haste on an angel errand—
Up to the welkin.

O'er the whole restless city Paul resounded,
High above rivals—the Clements, the Dunstons, Margarets, Michaels, Katherines, his ardent Dutiful henchmen.

To Deum pealed he then aloft—his edict:
To Deum peals yet, spreading airy witness
Of benign favours on a trusty London Sworn to uphold him.

HOW THE CAMPAIGN WILL CLOSE.

Much interest is being shown these days in the great prize Campaign conducted by the "China Mail" and "Sunday Herald." Several questions have been asked and to answer them, the following explanation is given regarding the closing of the Campaign.

On Tuesday evening, March 31, the ballot box in the Campaign office will be opened and the votes counted and published in the paper for the last time before the final count is made by the judges on Saturday night. On Wednesday morning, April 1, the ballot box will be sealed, a slot being left open in the top to receive the ballots. The box will not be opened again until opened by the judges after the close.

As soon as the box is sealed on Wednesday, all reserve ballots may be placed in the box. Also, every ballot issued from the beginning to the end of the Campaign, even though voted in the paper, will be placed again in the ballot box for the judges to check in the final count.

Promptly at 6 p.m. on Saturday, April 4, the Campaign will be formally closed at the Campaign offices in the Yee Sang Fat Building. The doors of the office will be locked promptly at that hour and no more contestants will be allowed to enter the Campaign Department. All who are in the office at the closing hour will be asked to leave and their final ballots issued and placed in the ballot box. After the last contestant has been waited on and the last ballot issued, the slot in the top of the box will be sealed in the presence of all contestants who remain in the office, and the box will be turned over to the judges and will be taken to a public place where the count will be made in the presence of contestants and their friends.

CONTESTANTS APPOINT JUDGES.

The judges are to be appointed by the contestants themselves. Each contestant is requested to appoint some person to act as judge. The judges so appointed will check and cross check all ballots issued and will announce the final totals.

MISTAKE IN COUNTS.

In the "Sunday Herald" of yesterday a typographic error was made in the list of standings. Mr. Alec B. Allan, who was at the top of the list should have had 605,810 votes, while Mr. W. J. Wilkinson of the Hongkong Land Investment Co. leads the list with 654,920.

The list which appears to-day is the same as published on Sunday. The votes will be counted again to-night and the new standings published in tomorrow's paper.

NAMES DROPPED.

As announced on Sunday, when the count is made for tomorrow's paper, all contestants who have not as yet turned in subscription money will be dropped from the list. All contestants so dropped may be reinstated, however, with their full votes as soon as they turn in some subscriptions.

Contestants who have not as yet turned in subscription money should get into the office at once, to-day, with some subscriptions, so that their names will not be dropped. Every advantage should be taken this week of the great special offer which closes on Saturday, March 21, and which gives 200,000 extra votes for each total of $100 turned in before that time. This is the greatest special offer of the balance of the Campaign and never again will subscriptions count so much as this week.

Now is the time to collect promises and to get extensions on subscriptions already turned in. Many people who have already subscribed for one year would be only too glad at this time to extend it to two years or even five years, and contestants getting such extensions will receive the full votes they would have received had they turned in the full subscription at one time.

This is the period of effort. Call at the different shops, see the wonderful array of prizes, then get busy and get in every possible subscription, for subscriptions mean votes and votes mean prizes.

UNIVERSITY v. H.K.C.C. "A."

Following on their success of last week, the University had marshalled their forces for a victory in First Division League cricket when the Hongkong C.C. "A" team representatives travelled to Pokfulam.

Battling first the home side declared their innings closed when they had reached the second century. The outstanding batsmen were the Rev. E. K. Quick (47) who made his runs from a quartette of fours and mostly singles, and B. P. Ng (51) who hit eight fours. Both played lively cricket in making nearly half the total score between them.

The H.K.C.C. fared disastrously, their innings realising only 59 runs, of which Maas, the only batsman to reach double figures, made 25. The Rev. E. K. Quick (6 for 15) led the attack, being ably assisted by two other bowlers, Scores:—

C.C.C. v. H.K.C.C. "B."

"A First Division League fixture on the Chaiwanow C.C. ground between the home side and the "B" team of the H.K.C.C. ended in an easy win for the visitors.

The C.C.C. batsmen were all dismissed for 102 runs, by the three bowlers of the opposition, Bowker coming off best with 4 for 27.

The visitors had passed their opponents' score when the second wicket fell, thanks to a mastery display by G. R. More. His score of 65 included fourteen fours, and on two occasions he caused some uneasiness in the pavilion when he hit in that direction. Modi was responsible for the dismissal of this batsman with a nice catch on the boundary line. Bowker, who followed later, improved on his bowling honours by scoring 55 runs, which included eleven fours. His career was cut short by the wicket-keeper (Schneppel) who also stumped the next man. Dixon made a remarkable throw at the wickets and caught Lammert off his crease. The H.K.C.C. side made a total of 236 runs before they retired.

C.S.C.C. v. EAST SURREYS.

The Civil Service C.C. walked a step higher on the First Division League table when they received the East Surreys as their guests.

Sending the visitors in to bat the soldiers were quickly disposed of for 86 runs. Evans, who had bowled consistently well in the last few matches, was again in great form and accounted for the dismissal of five batsmen at a cost of two runs apiece. The fielding of the C.S.C.C. was not up to the usual standard of past games, and but for this the bowling averages would have worked out much better.

By a coincidence, the C.S.C.C. had made exactly 86, the total score of their opponents, at the fall of the fifth wicket. Fincher, who had been playing a careful game, was then joined by Wallington and a good partnership resulted, the score being doubled when stumps were drawn. Both batsmen were unbeaten with 46 runs each, and it was a pity that the game was not continued a little longer to enable the batsmen to reach the half century mark. Wallington scored at a rapid rate, and put a lot of force behind his strokes. His score included nine fours. Fincher had half a dozen boundaries to his credit.

A steamer on the opposite side of the pier was engaged in fumigating, according to all reports, and the fumes from the chemicals were blowing across to where the Taft was docking. There was a good crowd on the decks of the Taft and suddenly everyone began to shed big tears. The pungent gasses had hit them and handkerchiefs came out in a hurry and everyone began to cry. No one knew what it was all about until they got ashore, other than the fact that something had "hit" them and that they just had to cry. The "tear gas attack" cleared the forward portion of the decks of the President Taft in a hurry.

HOW TO ENTER AND WIN.

Any person who desires may join the campaign by sending in his name to The Campaign Headquarters.

The Campaign will close on April 4th, 1925.

There will be no districts or territories. A member may secure subscriptions anywhere.

Immediately at the close of the Campaign, the votes will be counted and the member having the greatest number of votes will be awarded the first prize. The one having the second greatest number of votes will be given the second prize, and so on down the list until all prizes have been awarded.

Votes are given free and can be obtained by securing fully paid subscriptions to The China Mail or Sunday Herald.

Votes issued to one member cannot be transferred to another member.

No employee of this paper or member of the employees' family may become a member.

The Campaign is open to anyone anywhere. With the first subscription for $36.00 you secure, you will be given the votes on the "First subscription coupon." You may use only one of these coupons during the entire campaign as no more will be counted for one member.

You will get the votes on all subscriptions as stated in the schedule published. This schedule of votes will never be changed. In addition to the regular votes, a special bonus of 200,000 votes will be given on every total of $100.00 subscription money turned in during the fourth period ending March 21st, 1925. You will receive just as many extra ballots of 200,000 votes as you turn in totals of $100.00 between now and March 21st. This is the greatest special credit offer of the Balance of the Campaign and you will never again get as many votes for subscriptions.

The rules are so easy and the plan so simple that anyone who desires may go in and get a big prize. With a little effort in the right direction, you will be surprised how easily the credits count up toward winning the grand prize. ENTER YOUR NAME TO-DAY.

EASY TO GET VOTES.

The Campaign is really just getting started and contestants will find it very easy to get votes. The first thing to do is to come to the Campaign Headquarters immediately and get receipt books and supplies which will be furnished free. Then begin calling on friends and acquaintances and ask for their votes. Still better let them hand the subscription money direct to you. When you turn in the money and subscriptions at the office, the votes will be given to you.

The value of subscription payments is shown on the opposite side of this page. Get the subscriptions in now as they count more now than they ever will again.

Below: MRS HELEN HEYWORTH & DONI COLLINGS.

Joan London Abbott, daughter of the late Jack London, famous author, has been granted a divorce from Park Abbott, together with the custody of their three-year-old son, Park London Abbott. The differences arose over Mrs. Abbott's desire to retain the name London and to give her child that name. Miss Helen MacKellar, actress, has resigned from the leading role in "The Good Bad Woman," declaring her part was "too off colour," and therefore repugnant to her. "Dapper Don" Collins, alleged international crook, recently extradited from Paris, has been freed and the moment Helen Heyworth, divorced from a Chicago millionaire, declared she would wait for an eternity, is here. Miss Heyworth wanted to marry him in a Paris prison, but he refused, and she followed him to New York. It is believed they will be married in Paris.

Engaged.

Miss Marion Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. James Mitchell, will become the bride of Ivan Stanioff, son of the Bulgarian Minister to London, in Brompton Oratory in the capital. Social and diplomatic circles are preparing for the nuptials, which has been termed the "Gold Face Wedding."

The Duchess of York, exceeded even her husband's record on their present hunting trip in British East Africa, bringing down an immense rhinoceros with one shot. Congressman Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, is said to be assured of election as Speaker of the next House of Representatives by the action of a caucus of the Pennsylvania delegation in voting to support him. Dr. Wilhelm Marx, former Chancellor of the German Republic, has been elected Premier of Prussia by the Prussian Diet. Two persons were killed and 100 injured in Marseilles, when Communists attempted to break up a meeting of the Catholic Party presided over by General de Castelnau, commander of one of France's field armies, in the war.

KOWLOON v. ELECTRICS.

The "A" team of the Kowloon Cricket Club met the Hongkong Electric Club at Kowloon, the game being remarkable for the rapid scoring of the locals, who scored 191 for the loss of only two wickets. Petheram and Duncan were the first pair to go in and 121 had been signalled before they were separated. Even then there was no holding the batsmen for Kew and Renton both carried out their bats for 42 and 14, respectively.

The Electric Club were unable to respond in anything like the manner necessary against such a big total, and they were doubly unfortunate in losing Lunny, who was hurt and had to retire. De Rome was the top scorer with 32 not out. The whole side was disposed of for only 66 runs.

C.R.C. v. NAVY.

On the Chinese E.C. ground the Navy proved too strong for the home team and scored a runaway victory by the margin of 118 runs.

The Navy elected to bat first and no fewer than six of their batsmen reached double figures, the highest of which was Hargreaves' 40. The innings realised a total of 184.

The Chinese replied with 66 for nine wickets, they playing one man short. Ng Sze-kwong (29), and W. Hung (23) were the chief contributors. Mercer was deadly with the ball and captured six of the wickets for only eight runs.

'CELLO RECITAL.

PLAYER AND HIS INSTRUMENT.

The Cello used by Sergei Stupin is 264 years old. Sergei Stupin took to the Cello some 14 years ago. He looks at the most difficult piece of music only once, and a second time he plays same without the music before him. His technique and playing are marvellous. It is quite apparent that Sergei Stupin has the very highest original talent for acquiring the art of playing the Cello and all lovers of really good music will benefit greatly by hearing him. To-night's recital in the City Hall begins at 5.30.
